Hope for the Future Ministries celebrated 20 years of service by hosting "Voices of Hope"; a benefit concert held on October 21, 2007, at New Covenant Church in East Meadow. Pastors Rob & Lenore Taormina graciously donated their church facility as well as their Youth Group for the evening. The young people were a tremendous blessing by setting up and working at the refreshment tables all through the night.

The presence of the Lord was ushered in through music by Sienna, The Paul Paoli Band, Pastor Deborah Mitchell and Eyewitness. WLIX radio's very own Pastor Richard Anderson was on hand as the guest MC for the evening and Pastor Diane Dunne shared what the Lord has achieved through the use of her own life and obedience to Him.

But perhaps the most touching part of the night took place during a presentation of images and music from the outreach itself over the years. Mercy Me's "I Would Die For You" filled a darkened sanctuary while images of food lines, worship and hope filled the screen, giving the audience a look at the mercy of God through a "church without walls". When the lights came up, so did several individuals who gave their personal testimonies of how God was able to reach them in their own circumstances, set them on their feet again and excelled them to places no one would have imagined. This was just some of the tangible fruit after twenty years of ministry.

The most provocative was that of a woman named Colby, who had gone from a childhood of abuse and misery to motherhood, with no prospects of a future much different for her children. It wasn't until she met Pastor Diane and the HFTF team that the Lord was able to minister healing and hope to Colby and her family. Today, she continues to grow in leaps and bounds with a new position as store manager of a major retailer. Her children are thriving and as a family, they are living testimonies of just how powerful the love of God is when administered through everyday folks who hear His call and obey.

The entire evening was a huge success in every sense of the word. Physically: we were able to raise much needed funds as the high demands of winter approaches. Socially: the fellowship opened up new avenues of networking for all of the ministries involved. Spiritually: the anointing of the Lord was all over the place!

Pastors Diane Dunne & Deborah Mitchell

Pastor Diane and the entire HFTF family would like to extend their humblest gratitude and sincere appreciation for everyone who gave of their time, talents and finances. We are the family of God and He is greatly pleased when we operate as one. ♥

As families all across the region anticipate the arrival of Christmas 2007, we here at HFTF are busy preparing for what promises to be a very busy season. Plans are already underway for our annual Christmas Outreach Party which will be held on Tuesday, December 18th at Smithtown Gospel Tabernacle on Higbie Drive in Smithtown.

This event provides Christmas gifts and dinner for many of the needy families supported by HFTF; many of whom would be without at a time that should be filled with joy and excitement. It is our commitment that every child in attendance experience that sheer joy that only comes in those early hours on Christmas morning. The Lord's love and compassion is so immense, He became flesh and dwelt among us through Jesus who is Emmanuel - God with us. This is the powerful lesson witnessed through the giving and sharing throughout the evening.

As God has called us to be the answer to someone's prayer, we are collecting holiday items specifically for these kids and your help is desperately needed at this time. Donations of new toys and Christmas items can be delivered directly to HFTF at our Farmingdale location, Monday thru Friday from 10am to 4pm. You may also drop your donations off to the attention of Pastor Dave at Smithtown Gospel Tabernacle.

Business owners, church leaders and youth groups are greatly encouraged to consider holding toy drives at your locations on our behalf. We are believing that the Lord will see every need met and thank you in advance for your support.

For more information on how to hold a toy drive or to schedule a toy pick-up, please contact us @ (631) 752-5771.

Don't forget to watch Glory to Glory TV Show on Cablevision (Channel 115 & 20 every Tuesday 7:30 am Eastern Suffolk & Tuesday 8:30 am Nassau & Western Suffolk County) with Pastor Diane Dunne & Pastor Deborah Mitchell

Thank You!

Through your prayers, we have been able to fill two positions offered at HFTF. We have filled the position of Office Administrator and also the part time position of Kitchen Chef. There is still a part-time position for Warehouse worker available. For further information, please contact our office at (631) 752-5771.
